THE AGREEMENT

The Board of Directors of the Company is pleased to announce that on 23 September 2006, Beijing WFC, a 70% owned subsidiary of the Company, has entered into the Agreement with the He Zhou City Forestry Bureau for promoting the plantation in the Guangxi jurisdiction the genetically modified tree specie Broussonetia payriferalvent, which is a Moraceae plant under the category of Deciduous Trees and its highly resistance characteristic allow trees to grow in environments unfavorable to other plants. The favorable attributes of the tree specie brings economic efficiency and better productivity for higher land utilization and lower labour costs. The trees also facilitate the growth of soil micro-organism that may serve to improve quality of infertile land on which plantation is carried out, as well as lowering the carbon dioxide level in the surrounding atmosphere.

In accordance with the Agreement, Beijing WFC will provide the genetically modified tree specie Broussonetia payriferalvent and technical support for plantation of the tree specie in the Guangxi province; the PRC, and the He Zhou City Forestry Bureau will grant to Beijing WFC forest land of no less than 3,000,000 Chinese Mu by area for the plantation purpose. During the first phrase of the Proposed Cooperation, prior to the beginning of the year 2007 He Zhou City Forestry Bureau is required to transfer to Beijing WFC portion of forest land of no less than 1,000,000 Chinese Mu by area and confer sufficient harvesting quota and replanting benchmark in the order that Beijing WFC will have adequate land resources available in the forthcoming year for planting the genetically modified tree specie Broussonetia payriferalvent. In addition, the He Zhou City Forestry Bureau will grant additional land site of no less than 1,500 Chinese Mu by area for the purpose of erecting a sapling fostering site and workshop for simple operations such as bark separation and screening process. The forest land to be transferred which is being identified and has not been confirmed at this stage. However, the He Zhou City Forestry Bureau has agreed to grant the forest land to Beijing WFC at favorable pricing terms. In addition, it was specified in the Agreement that the forest land to be granted by the He Zhou City Forestry Bureau may cover land managed under its jurisdiction but not limited to land held under PRC State ownership, mass-ownership, and forestry land use right held by farming unit.

Shareholders should note that the Proposed Cooperation is subject to the Formal Agreement and the finalization of the terms and conditions thereof. It is the common intention of the He Zhou City Forestry Bureau and Beijing WFC to negotiate in good faith the terms of the Proposed Cooperation with a view to reaching commercial agreement and signing the Formal Agreement no later than 90 days after the date of the Agreement. As the Proposed Cooperation is subject to the Formal Agreement, Shareholders and investors are advised to exercise caution when dealing in the Shares.
